FOREWORD

IN 1880 the legislature of the State of New York passed an Act covering the registration of vital statistics, which Act requires that all births, marriages and deaths in New York be recorded. Prior to 1880 registration of such statistics was occasional or, more often, entirely neglected. In Dutchess County the early town clerks did not enter such records on their books and the church registers in the county are few in number and incomplete. It is frequently difficult therefore to procure reliable dates in connection with Dutchess County families. This collection of gravestone inscriptions represents a definite effort to contribute something to offset the deficiency that exists. In general, the editors have omitted stones bearing date in the latter portion of the nineteenth century. Their chief object has been to preserve records ante-dating the state law of 1880.

The gathering of these inscriptions was begun in April, 1911, and was practically finished in the autumn of 1916 but the World-War delayed publication. Every care has been taken to secure accuracy in transcription, upon which the value of the work depends. If errors occur, the editors ask indulgence for them in view of the difficulties under which such a collection is made. A majority of the inscriptions listed have been read from the stones only with great effort. The surface of many stones has scaled, lichens have grown over the lettering and a large number of stones are fallen and broken. Most of the burial enclosures are tangles of sumach bushes, saplings, vines, briars and poison ivy and the ground is often full of treacherous holes. The phrase "overgrown and deserted," used in the following pages to describe so many places, may be taken to mean all manner of wild vegetable growth, of filth, of refuse and of neglect and misuse. If mistakes have been made they should be charged to the obstacles encountered, not to editorial negligence.

The editors desire to thank all those who have aided them in copying inscriptions, the owners of private property who have hospitably co-operated, and Miss Helen Van Kleeck, Mrs. Joseph D. Vernoy and Miss Agnes Cribley for expert secretarial assistance.

All literary matter on the stones has been omitted to economize space and all inscriptions have been reduced to a standard form. The use of brackets indicates uncertainty as to the lettering on the stone. Lists are arranged alphabetically, first by family names, second by the Christian names in one family. They are grouped by townships and in each town-group are presented in the following order: (1) family grounds, (2) churchyards, (3) community grounds. The abbreviations used are:

B.	= Born.	Wid.	= Widow.
D.	= Died, Day, Days.	A.	= Age.
Dau.	= Daughter.	Y.	= Year, Years.
S.	= Son.	M.	= Month, Months.
W.	= Wife.

To facilitate the use of these lists under the township-grouping the following summary of the civil divisions, land patents and racial stocks in Dutchess County is appended:

CIVIL DIVISIONS

1683. Organization of "the Dutchess's County." The territory originally included in the county has twice been reduced: (1) in 1717, when a strip at the north end was set off to Albany County (this strip now comprises the towns of Germantown and Clermont in Columbia County) and (2) in 1812, when the present Putnam County was set off to the south.

1717. Civil divisions instituted in the county, viz., North, Middle and South Wards.

1737. Civil divisions of the county reorganized and the following precincts created: Beekman, Crom Elbow, North, Poughkeepsie, Rhinebeck, Rombout and South Precincts.

1746. North Precinct extended across the Oblong and re-named Northeast.

1762. Crom Elbow Precinct divided into Amenia and Charlotte Precincts.

1768. Pawling Precinct set off from Beekman Precinct.

1788. Civil divisions of the county reorganized and the following townships created:

Amenia, from Amenia Precinct.
Beekman, from Beekman Precinct.
Clinton, from Charlotte Precinct.
Fishkill, from Rombout Precinct.
Northeast, from Northeast Precinct.
Pawling, from Pawling Precinct.
Poughkeepsie, from Poughkeepsie Precinct.
Rhinebeck, from Rhinebeck Precinct.
Washington, from Charlotte Precinct.

1793. Town of Stanford erected out of the town of Washington.
1807. Town of Dover erected out of the town of Pawling.
1812. Town of Red Hook erected out of the town of Rhinebeck.
1818. Town of Milan erected out of the town of Northeast.
1821. Town of Hyde Park erected out of the town of Clinton.
1821. Town of Pleasant Valley erected out of the town of Clinton.
1821. Town of La Grange erected chiefly out of the town of Beekman, and partly out of the town of Fishkill. It was first called Freedom.
1823. Town of Pine Plains erected out of the town of Northeast.
1827. Town of Union Vale erected out of the town of Beekman.
1849. Town of East Fishkill erected out of the town of Fishkill.
1875. Town of Wappinger erected out of the town of Fishkill.

LAND PATENTS

Settlers in Dutchess County took title to their lands under eleven royal patents.

1. The Rombout Patent, granted 1685. Covered the present towns of Fishkill, East Fishkill, Wappinger, a portion of Poughkeepsie and the western portion of La Grange.
2. The Sanders and Harmense Patent, granted 1686. Covered a portion of the present town and city of Poughkeepsie.
3. The Schuyler Patent, granted 1688. Covered a portion of the town and city of Poughkeepsie.
4. The Artsen-Rosa-Elton Patent, granted 1688. Covered the southwest corner of the present town of Rhinebeck.

5. The Pawling Patent, granted 1696. Covered the part of the present town of Hyde Park which was north of the subsequent Hyde Park Patent.

6. The Great Nine Partners Patent, granted 1697. Covered the present towns of Amenia, Washington, Pleasant Valley, the southern portions of the towns of Northeast, Stanford and Clinton, and that part of the town of Hyde Park which is south and east of Crom Elbow Creek.

7. The Rhinebeck Patent, granted 1703. Covered the present town of Red Hook and almost all of Rhinebeck.

8. The Beekman Patent, granted 1703. Covered the present towns of Beekman, Pawling, Dover, Union Vale and the eastern portion of La Grange.

9. The Hyde Park Patent, granted 1705. Covered the part of the present town of Hyde Park bounded east and south by Crom Elbow Creek and north by the Pawling Patent. The line between the Hyde Park and Pawling Patents was approximately the present northern boundary of the property of F. G. Landon.

10. The Little Nine Partners Patent, granted 1706. Covered the present towns of Milan and Pine Plains and the northern parts of Northeast, Stanford and Clinton.

11. The Oblong (a rectification of the boundary line between New York and Connecticut), created 1731. Covered a strip on the eastern border of the county, through the towns of Northeast, Amenia, Dover and Pawling.

RACIAL STOCKS

The colonial population of Dutchess County may be divided roughly into three classes,—the Dutch, the German and the English. There was a sprinkling of French (but negligible in number) and an occasional Scandinavian, Scotch-, Welsh-, or Irishman.

Settlement of the county occurred in distinct racial waves. The Dutch came first in a thin stream, from Albany and Ulster Counties chiefly, and in the approximate period of 1683-1725 they settled at scattered points in the valley of the Fishkill, of the Clove and of the Wappingers creeks, on the site of the city of Poughkeepsie and in the present town of Rhinebeck. From about 1730 to 1750 they came in good numbers from Long Island and Westchester County and concentrated on the Rombout Patent at the southern end of the county.

Palatine Germans were the predominant element in the northern end of the county, in Red Hook, Rhinebeck and Milan, although the Dutch were a close second in Rhinebeck. The Germans came to Dutchess from the Palatine camps in Albany and Ulster Counties and arrived approximately 1715-1730.

From 1730 to 1775 emigrants from New England came into Dutchess and settled large areas in the eastern and central sections of the county. They also penetrated into almost all of the previously settled parts. This English stock gave the final color to the character of the county as a whole. The Dutch and German languages disappeared from common speech and the English tongue was permanently established.

The second building was followed by a third, called the "New Church of South Amenia". Some stones in this yard bear dates prior to 1786, which probably indicates removal from other places.

TOWN OF AMENIA

Leedsville Cemetery

In 1903, Lawrence Van Alstyne published "Burying Grounds of Sharon, Connecticut, Amenia, and North East, New York." When Dr. Poucher published his volume of "Old Gravestones of Dutchess County, New York," in 1924, he did not include any inscriptions from the towns of Amenia and North East. A manuscript copy of the inscriptions from the Leedsville Cemetery (not included in either published volume) was presented to the Dutchess County Historical Society, in 1962, by Miss Ruth E. Barlow of Wassaic, N. Y. It had been given to Miss Barlow among some notebooks and papers of Miss Mary H. Reed, daughter of Newton Reed, a local historian of Amenia.

The inscriptions, therefore, are given here as pages 4a, 4b, 4c and 4d.

TOWN OF AMENIA

Leedsville Cemetery

Copied September 1, 1908, by M. H. Reed. The land for this cemetery was given by Alpheus Leonard, M.D., who lived on the east side of the street. He was the first man buried here. His son, William Henry Leonard, removed the doctor's remains to Mount Kisco, New York.

CORNELL GROUND

CLASSIFICATION: Family ground.
LOCATION: On the farm of Thomas E. Peters, one mile north of Poughquag.
CONDITION: Overgrown and deserted.

UNNAMED GROUND

CLASSIFICATION: Uncertain.
LOCATION: A stone's throw northwest of the dwelling house of Charles Ferris, a half-mile north of Gardner Hollow on the road to Verbank.
CONDITION: Overgrown.
INSCRIPTIONS: 25 in number. Copied November 10, 1923, by J. Wilson Poucher, M. D., Miss Violet Barbour, Miss Margaret DeM. Brown, Miss Caroline Ferris and Miss Helen W. Reynolds.
REMARKS: This is a large walled enclosure, containing many unmarked field-stones beside the marked stones listed below. Through the enclosure runs a property-line (indicated by cobbles). North of this line the property-owner has removed headstones from the enclosure and used them in fences, horse-block, &c. South of the line the owner is Mrs. Amos D. Baker. Mrs. Baker has a tradition that this burial-ground belonged originally to a Lutheran Church, and she states that her father (John Williams, born 1803) attended services in the building in his boyhood, the building being torn down approximately 1815-1820. The several histories of Dutchess County make no mention of a Lutheran Church in Beekman but at page 233 of liber 2 of deeds in the office of the County Clerk is recorded a deed, dated September 10, 1749, whereby Colonel Henry Beekman made a gift of site, church-building and burial-ground at this very spot for a Lutheran congregation. Further information about this congregation might possibly be gleaned from records of the Lutherans in New York City.

UNION CHURCH, GREEN HAVEN

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: At Green Haven.
CONDITION: In 1912 dirty and rough, partly bare and dug over, partly full of coarse weeds and refuse and suffering from a poultry yard adjoining.
INSCRIPTIONS: 103 in number. Copied May 21, 1912, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Miss Helen W. Reynolds.
REMARKS: Immediately before and after 1800 there was a "Union Church" at Green Haven, ministered to for some time by the pastor of the Baptist Church at Middlebush, town of Wappinger. The church building was large for that day, had a gallery at one end, and a high pulpit with a sounding board. In later years the building was used for entertainments, but has since disappeared. This burial ground probably marks its site.

After 1912, when this ground was in such very bad condition, Mr. Gilbert F. Foote of Green Haven and Poughkeepsie restored it to order, but it has since then become wild with perennials.

PROVIDENCE CEMETERY, PLEASANT PLAINS

CLASSIFICATION: Community ground.
LOCATION: At Pleasant Plains.
CONDITION: Well cared for.

INSCRIPTIONS: 155 in number. Copied by George S. Van Vliet of Pleasant Plains and published in the Poughkeepsie EAGLE of February 14, 1913.

REMARKS: Known as Providence Cemetery.

In 1906 Providence Cemetery (which was badly overgrown and neglected) was taken over by a corporation and put in order. The trustees proceeded to make a list of interments as best they could, including the parentage of deceased when known. Many of the old field stones bore only names. In such cases the trustees referred to baptismal and family records for the date of birth or death. Where the age was given it was subtracted from the date of death and the birth-date entered on the list. The following list is therefore not an exact copy of the inscriptions on the stones, but it was compiled with great care from original authorities and is to be held as entirely reliable. As published in the Poughkeepsie EAGLE by Mr. Van Vliet the list was arranged chronologically. The editor of the present work has rearranged the entries alphabetically to conform with accompanying lists.

COMMUNITY GROUND, ROBINSON FARM

CLASSIFICATION: Community ground.

LOCATION: At Fishkill Plains, on the farm of D. Remsen Robinson, on the west side of the main road north to La Grange.

CONDITION: Full of saplings; enclosed by a stone wall.

INSCRIPTIONS: 44 in number. Copied October 21, 1912, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Miss Helen W. Reynolds.

REMARKS: This is one of the oldest burial places in the county of which traces now remain. It contains unmarked graves and graves marked by rough field stones without inscriptions. Dutch families from Long Island settled on Fishkill Plains in the seventeen-forties and 'fifties. The earliest date among these stones is 1752. The names on the stones, taken in connection with the deeds for land in the immediate vicinity indicate that this was a local neighborhood burial ground.

DUTCH CHURCHYARD, FISHKILL VILLAGE

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: Reformed (Dutch) Church, Fishkill Village.
CONDITION: Cared for.
INSCRIPTIONS: 487 in number. Copied November 4 and December 2, 1914, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., Mrs. Poucher and Mrs. Louis P. Hasbrouck.
REMARKS: The Reformed (Dutch) Church at Fishkill Village was organized in 1716 and a church building erected in 1731. Interments were made around the church until late in the nineteenth century. During the War of the Revolution the building was used as a military prison. In 1882 Mr. E. W. Van Voorhis of New York copied the inscriptions in this churchyard and printed them (G. P. Putnam's Sons) for private distribution. There are eighteen names on Mr. Van Voorhis's list which are not on the list made in the same yard in 1914 by Dr. Poucher. Dr. Poucher copied forty-six names omitted by Mr. Van Voorhis. The duplicates on the two lists have been compared and any discrepancies corrected. The following list includes all inscriptions copied by Mr. Van Voorhis and by Dr. Poucher and acknowledgement is hereby made of the examination of the former's list.

DUTCH CHURCHYARD, FISHKILL LANDING

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: Reformed (Dutch) Church, Beacon (Fishkill Landing).
CONDITION: Overgrown and disorderly.
INSCRIPTIONS: 343 in number. Copied October 26 and 27, 1915, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., Mrs. Poucher, Miss Anne LeFevre Poucher, Mrs. Frank A. Mitchell.
REMARKS: The Reformed (Dutch) Church at Fishkill Landing (now Beacon) is an offshoot from the Reformed Church at Fishkill Village. A church building was erected in 1813 and the yard surrounding it used for interments from that time.

Included in the following list are the stones within a walled enclosure immediately adjoining the churchyard. The enclosure is supposedly a Schenck family ground but to all intents and purposes is part of the churchyard.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCHYARD, MATTEAWAN

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: St. Luke's Church (Protestant Episcopal), Beacon (Matteawan).
CONDITION: Well cared for.
INSCRIPTIONS: 707 in number. Copied October 18 and 26, 1914, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., Mrs. Poucher, Miss Mabel Cooley, Miss Cleona Glass.
REMARKS: St. Anna's Church (Protestant Episcopal) of Matteawan, organized in 1833, erected a building in the center of the village, west of the N. D. & C. railroad station, and also opened a small cemetery in the valley east of the railroad.

The Presbyterian Church of Matteawan (also organized in 1833) soon after opened a burial ground adjoining St. Anna's.

* see Hicks, p.94

In 1868 twelve acres of land, immediately south and west of these two cemeteries, were given to St. Anna's.. The church in the village was then razed, the present church built on the new site and the name of the parish changed to St. Luke's.

The division fence has been taken down between St. Luke's property and the Presbyterian lot and the whole forms an exceptionally beautiful spot, the care of which is proportionally shared in by the two churches.

METHODIST CHURCHYARD, MATTEAWAN

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.

LOCATION: In the city of Beacon, about two blocks north of the main street and two blocks east of the church building.

CONDITION: Good.

INSCRIPTIONS: 428 in number. Copied August 3 and October 1, 1916, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Mrs. Poucher.

REMARKS: In 1819 Methodists of the town of Fishkill began to hold services in a school house between Matteawan and Fishkill Landing on the old road, and a burial ground was opened. In 1824 a new road was laid out on which the congregation (known as the Matteawan Methodist Church) acquired a site and erected a building. This building was abandoned in 1860 for religious purposes, became known as Swift Hall and in 1890 burned down. In 1860 the congregation divided, one part building a church at the landing, the other in Matteawan. Recently a fund has been given for the perpetual care of this cemetery.

ST. JAMES'S CHURCHYARD, HYDE PARK, N. Y.

A Village Parish-Church and God's Acre, Rare in Beauty

REMARKS: St. James's parish was founded in 1811. The site for a church was acquired in that same year and the first building erected. The latter was replaced in 1844 with the present stone church. The property as a whole is picturesque and beautiful.

REMARKS: The Bockee-Smith family ground. Isaac Smith (1722-1795) came from Hempstead, L. I., to Dutchess County 1767-68 and settled at The Square. The house he built is still standing across the road from this burial ground. His daughter, Catharine, married Jacob Bockee, who was the son of Abraham Bockee (1718-1776). Abraham Bockee of New York City settled in this vicinity soon after 1750. The burial ground was used by the two families.

MORAVIAN MISSION

CLASSIFICATION: Historical monument.
LOCATION: Three miles south of the village of Pine Plains, at the site of the Moravian Mission to the Indians.
CONDITION: Within a railing, on top of a hill in an open field.
INSCRIPTIONS: 1 in number. Copied October 20, 1914, by J. W. Poucher, M. D.
REMARKS: This site lies within lot No. 12 of the Little Nine Partners Patent. The general locality was known by the Indian term Shekomeko (variously spelled), translated "Little Mountain" and also "Eel stream" or "place of eels". Moravian missionaries came in 1740 to the Indian village at this point and erected several buildings and made numerous converts. The influx of white settlers in the next few years drove the Indians and the missionaries to a new mission site on the east side of Indian Pond over the Connecticut State line.

PITTSBURY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.

LOCATION: In the hamlet of Washington Hollow, on the south side of the main road, opposite the hotel.

CONDITION: In good order.

INSCRIPTIONS: 389 in number. Copied November 27, 1912, April 9 and 30, 1913, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., Miss Helen W. Reynolds, Miss M. O. Johnston, Miss Dickinson and Miss Donihee.

REMARKS: This is the site of the "Pittsbury Presbyterian Church", erected about 1747, torn down about 1858. In the summer of 1777 a band of Tory raiders from southern Dutchess made this church building their headquarters. During the War of 1812 a body of American troops on the way to the northern border used it as a temporary barracks.

The congregation of "Pittsbury Church" was absorbed into the Pleasant Valley Presbyterian Church early in the nineteenth century and Pittsbury's independent existence ceased.

The stones in the modern section of this ground are not included in this list.

LASSEN GROUND

CLASSIFICATION: Family ground.
LOCATION: Near New Hamburgh, on land owned by Mr. George T. Bowdoin, north of the residence of the late Mr. Irving Grinnell and south of Jan Casper's Kil, in an orchard.
CONDITION: Almost obliterated.
INSCRIPTIONS: 3 in number. Copied September 24, 1914, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Mrs. Harris S. Reynolds.
REMARKS: Pieter Pieterse Lassen of Albany settled upon land immediately south of the mouth of Jan Casper's Kil before 1688. This burial ground is probably not far from the site of his dwelling and presumably contains many unmarked graves. It is mentioned in early deeds as perpetually reserved for burial purposes. The name Lassen is found in various phonetic spellings (Lassing, Lossing, Lawson) and a numerous family, descended from Pieter Pieterse, has been identified with the vicinity of New Hamburgh.

LIVINGSTON GROUND *

CLASSIFICATION: Family ground.
LOCATION: At the northern end of the Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery.
CONDITION: Well cared for.
INSCRIPTIONS: 64 in number. Copied April 23, 1911, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Miss Helen W. Reynolds. Published in the Poughkeepsie Eagle of June 8, 1911.
REMARKS: The family burial place of Henry Livingston (born 1714, died 1799) of Poughkeepsie and his descendants. In the latter half of the nineteenth century the enclosure was entirely neglected and when this copy of inscriptions was made in 1911 the approach to it was difficult because of undergrowth while, within the ruined wall, the ground was in bad condition and the stones were fallen and broken. In 1914 the enclosure was incorporated in the Poughkeepsie Cemetery and will hereafter be kept in good order.

VAN KLEECK GROUND

CLASSIFICATION: Family ground.
LOCATION: In the city of Poughkeepsie, on the west side of Vassar street.
CONDITION: Built over.
INSCRIPTIONS: See "Remarks".
REMARKS: In 1702 Baltus Barents Van Kleeck, ancestor of all Van Kleecks in the United States, built a house at Poughkeepsie that remained standing until well into the nineteenth century. It stood near the corner of the present Mill and Vassar streets and west of it there grew up a family burial ground. Stones in this also stood until well along in the nineteenth century. The location and former existence of the Van Kleeck family ground are cited because it is probable that within the present city of Poughkeepsie there were once other family grounds like this, record of which has not been preserved. Another instance is the Van Benschoten ground mentioned but not located. These small family grounds presumably were used in the eighteenth century before churchyards became numerous.

FREAR GROUND

CLASSIFICATION: Family ground.
LOCATION: On Ferris Lane, southeast of the City of Poughkeepsie, east of the residence of Lindley M. Stevens.

CONDITION: Surrounded by a stone wall. When this list was made the enclosure was thickly overgrown with saplings and vines, which have since been cut away.

INSCRIPTIONS: 33 in number. Copied May 28, 1911, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Miss Helen W. Reynolds. Published in the Poughkeepsie Eagle of June 14, 1911.

REMARKS: The Frear ground. Jacobus Frear (born 1735, died 1805) was an early settler and a large land owner southeast of the city of Poughkeepsie. Another branch of Frears settled in what is now the southwest portion of the city, the section being known as Freartown. In the War of the Revolution John Frear was colonel of a Poughkeepsie regiment of militia. His homestead farm was on the east side of the Post Road and included the present Van Benschoten and Vail properties.

VAN DER BURGH GROUND (1)

CLASSIFICATION: Family ground.
LOCATION: On land owned in 1924 by Dr. A. R. Moffitt.
REMARKS: The land which is in the angle formed by the junction of the Post Road and Beechwood avenue (about two miles south of the city of Poughkeepsie) was a portion of the farm of Henry Van Der Burgh, who settled in the neighborhood about 1710 and died about 1750. A mortgage, dated April 16, 1771, (Loan Office records, vol. 1771-1777, No. 105), and covering 43 acres in approximately the location above referred to, contains this clause: "reserving out a quarter of an acre for a Simetry or Burying Place for wich purpose the same has long since been used for the family of Henry Van Denburgh deceased, with Free liberty to pass and Repass to and from the same for all persons who shall attend any funeralls." Traces of this burial ground are not now visible. In 1913 when the foundation was dug for the house of Mr. Oakley Norris (later sold to Dr. A. R. Moffitt) traces of an ancient burial ground were found. In the neighborhood there is a tradition that the stones from this burial place were built into the foundation of the barn now standing on the farm of Edward H. Brasch, near by. The barn was erected approximately 1865-1875.

VAN DER BURGH (2)

CLASSIFICATION: Family ground.
LOCATION: Southeast of the city of Poughkeepsie, in an orchard near the east fence of the property of the Hudson River Driving Park Association.
CONDITION: Stones fallen and broken.
INSCRIPTIONS: 9 in number. Copied April 25, 1911, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Miss Helen W. Reynolds.
REMARKS: Van Der Burgh ground. Before 1800 the Van Der Burghs were large land owners in this neighborhood and on old maps the present Southeast Avenue, Poughkeepsie, was "the road to John Van Der Burgh's". John Van Der Burgh's house is still standing opposite the northeast corner of the Driving Park but made over and modernized. In its first estate it was an attractive eighteenth century farm house with an excellent carved doorway and fanlight. Originally there were a good many stones in the family burial ground which, by vandalism, have been broken and scattered.

DUTCH CHURCH

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: On land of the Reformed Dutch Church of the City of Poughkeepsie.
CONDITION: Not good.
INSCRIPTIONS: 528 in number. Four lists. See List captions.
REMARKS: The Reformed Dutch Church of Poughkeepsie was organized in 1716 and three burial grounds have been owned and used by the congregation as follows:

1. The yard surrounding the first church building. This building, erected 1723, stood at the southeast corner of Main and Market streets and the yard was used for burials until about 1800. Early in the nineteenth century the land was leased in parcels for business purposes and, in 1830, a general removal of remains was made by official authorization to a vault situated in the rear of the present 260 Main street.

2. The yard surrounding the second church building. This building stood (1760-1822) on the north side of Main street, immediately east of the present annex to the Nelson House.

3. The yard on the New York and Albany Post Road, immediately north of the present city-line, which was opened in 1810.

Below are given all the data now obtainable from these three burial places in the form of Lists 1, 2, and 3; also a fourth and incomplete list of stones removed from two of the three above places to the Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery. There is also given a copy of the form of certificate issued for plots in the yard on the Post Road.

List No. 1

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: In the city of Poughkeepsie, at the southeast corner of Main and Market streets, the site of the first church-building of the Dutch congregation.
CONDITION: Built upon for business purposes; no traces visible.
INSCRIPTIONS: 1 in number. Copied November 18, 1912, by Miss Helen W. Reynolds.
REMARKS: On November 14, 1912, workmen, who were excavating for a sub-cellar under the Vassar Pharmacy, 11 Market street, found a portion of a stone which once had marked a grave in the original churchyard of the Dutch church. The left side of the stone, bearing the first part of each line of the inscription, was broken off. What remained of the inscription is given below:

"———t Het Lichaem
——— (g)us Swartwout

——— ren den 15 October
——— 1669 Ents Overleden
——— in Het Jaer
——— Heren 1744."

List No. 2

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: In the city of Poughkeepsie, in the rear of the annex to the Nelson House on the north side of Main street.
CONDITION: In 1912 deserted, bare and rough and, since then, built upon.
INSCRIPTIONS: 33 in number.
REMARKS: On April 27, 1877, the late Mrs. William S. Morgan copied the inscriptions then remaining in this ground and on April 11, 1888, Mr. George S. Van Vliet did the same. In 1898 the late Mr. Frank Van Kleeck copied what stones he could then find in the same place. On April 19, 1912, Dr. Poucher and Miss Helen W. Reynolds copied all they could find there at that time. The four lists substantiate and supplement each other. Any slight discrepancies are placed in brackets in the following arrangement, which is a combination of the original lists.

CHRIST CHURCH

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyards.
LOCATION: On land of Christ Church (Protestant Episcopal), in the city of Poughkeepsie.
CONDITION: Well cared for.
INSCRIPTIONS: 185 in number. Nine lists. See list captions.
REMARKS: The congregation of Christ Church, Poughkeepsie, erected a church building in 1774 on what is now the northeast corner of Market and Church streets, Poughkeepsie, which building stood until 1834. The land surrounding the church on this site was used for interments approximately 1774-1828. In 1828 land was purchased by the corporation of Christ Church at Montgomery and Academy streets, Poughkeepsie, for a burial place. This ground became known as "the English Burying Ground" and it was used for interments approximately 1828-1868.

In 1888 the congregation of Christ Church sold its property at Market and Church streets and a new church building was erected on the southwest portion of the English Burying Ground. At this time (1888) removals were made from the churchyard on Market street and from the English Burying Ground to the Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery.

Classified lists are given below which this statement of facts will render self-explanatory.

5. Gill, Wilhelmina, w. of Robert, d. 1800, Jan. 4, a. 38-8-21.
6. ——; "Dina." (Note: This stone marks the resting place of a negro woman who was a slave in the Gill family, and who died (free) about 1823, being buried, when she died, on the Gill farm near Camelot. Her body was later moved to this family plot in the Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery.

   Dina came from Africa in a slave ship and upon arrival in New York was purchased by Theophilus Anthony of Poughkeepsie Precinct to be a nurse for his infant daughter, Wilhelmina Anthony (born 1761), who afterward married Robert Gill.

   Theophilus Anthony's house, to which Dina was brought and where she died, and which was occupied by the Gills after Theophilus Anthony, is still standing on the bank of the Hudson near the factory of the Delapenha Company.

   When the British came up the Hudson in 1777 the family fled into the woods for safety, but Dina remained in the house to guard it. The soldiers came ashore at this point and Dina bribed them not to burn the house by offering them a meal. They spared the house, but fired the mill and shot into the barns.

   It seems fitting that this authentic story should be permanently recorded here and honor paid to the courage and the life-long faithful service of a simple African whose claim to the same would otherwise be forgotten).

METHODIST CHURCH

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: In the city of Poughkeepsie, on the east side of Jefferson street.
CONDITION: In 1911 entirely neglected, full of rank vegetation and of litter of all sorts. Since 1911 the lot sold and built upon.
INSCRIPTIONS: 99 in number. Copied in May and December, 1911, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Miss Helen W. Reynolds. Published in the Poughkeepsie Eagle of May 4, 1912.
REMARKS: In 1806 this land was acquired by the Methodists of Poughkeepsie as a site for a church building. The church was torn down in 1826 but for many years the lot was used as a burial place. Later, it sank into the dirty, disorderly state in which it was in 1911 when ths list of inscriptions was made. Between 1911 and 1915 (and as a result of the making of this list) the lot was sold for building purposes, a plot in the Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery was purchased, and all stones and remains moved there. A substantial margin of profit remained financially and should form an inducement to other Churches to give proper care to the burial places in their charge.

INSCRIPTIONS: 40 in number. Copied May 31, 1911, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Miss Helen W. Reynolds. Published in the Poughkeepsie Eagle of July 31, 1911. The stone for Colonel Leonard Lewis, who died in 1730, must have been brought to this yard from an earlier location.

REMARKS: Prior to the War of the Revolution Presbyterians at Poughkeepsie held services with more or less regularity. They shared the the ministrations of a pastor now with the Rombout Church at Brinckerhoff and now with the Pleasant Valley Church. During the war the congregation at Poughkeepsie lapsed out of existence. In 1817 the congregation was revived and in 1826 it was formally organized. This lot of land was given to the church in 1821 for burial purposes. Since 1911 the lot has been sold by the church and a garage built upon it but legal difficulties have been encountered, in connection with passing the title, affording a specific instance of the fact that ground originally set aside for burial purposes can rarely be transferred with clear title.

FRIENDS' GROUND

CLASSIFICATION: Friends' burial ground.

LOCATION: In the city of Poughkeepsie, south of the upper Church street school.

CONDITION: In 1911 almost impenetrably overgrown with sumach bushes, large trees and poison ivy. In 1922 incorporated into the Poughkeepsie playground.

INSCRIPTIONS: 49 in number. Copied May 31, 1911, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Miss Helen W. Reynolds. Published in the Poughkeepsie Eagle of July 13, 1911.

REMARKS: A Friends' Meeting was organized at Poughkeepsie early in the nineteenth century. In 1821 Isaiah Green deeded to the Society a half acre of his farm for burial purposes. The deed conveyed a right-of-way to the burial lot from the Dutchess Turnpike (now Main street) along a lane, which lane was thenceforth known as "Quaker Lane."

It is greatly to be regretted that the old and distinctive name of "Quaker Lane" has, with the growth of the city in this neighborhood, given way to commonplace modern usages and become "Palmer street". When the Society of Friends divided into Hicksite and Orthodox in 1828 the Hicksite Meeting at Poughkeepsie retained this burial ground. In 1911, after the publication in the Poughkeepsie Eagle of the inscriptions copied by Dr. Poucher and Miss Reynolds, the Hon. Charles N. Arnold of Poughkeepsie, representing the Hicksite Meeting, had the burial lot restored to order at his personal expense. All wild growth was cleared away and a fence built. In the course of this work nine inscriptions were found on stones overlooked in the tangle which have been incorporated in the following list. There were also old stones in this ground which, in accordance with Quaker custom, were unmarked. In 1922 the burial ground was entirely dug over and its boundaries obliterated in the course of creating a public playground.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: In the city of Poughkeepsie, on the east side of East Mansion St.
CONDITION: Good.
INSCRIPTIONS: 108 in number. Copied November 6 and 7, 1914, by J. W. Poucher, M. D.
REMARKS: This yard is the property of St. Peter's Church (Roman Catholic) and was in use from 1841 to 1854. About 1825-1835 emigrants from Ireland became numerous enough in Poughkeepsie to form a well defined fraction of the population and in 1837 they erected a church building. The burying ground on East Mansion street, a parochial cemetery, is the resting place of a number of the first generation of Irish immigrants to this locality. The inscriptions of the later cemetery, owned by St. Peter's parish, on the Salt Point Road a little northeast of the city of Poughkeepsie, are not included in this work as they fall within the period of more careful record-keeping and are easily accessible.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, NEW HAMBURGH

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: In the village of New Hamburgh, on a hill to the north and east of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad drawbridge.
CONDITION: Overgrown and deserted.
INSCRIPTIONS: 322 in number. Copied September 22, 23, 24, 1914, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., Mrs. Poucher and Mrs. Harris S. Reynolds.

REMARKS: The present edifice occupied by the Presbyterian Church of New Hamburgh stands west of the tracks of the New York Central Railroad, but the burying ground on the hill to the east marks the site of the first church building. The Church was organized about 1809 and on June 26 of that year the trustees took title to the land on the hill (see Dutchess County deeds, Liber 39, page 119). One of the four trustees was George Washington Clinton, son of George Clinton sometime Governor of New York and Vice-President of the United States. George Washington Clinton was later buried here (see below). The Clinton residence was near the bank of the Hudson not far north of New Hamburgh.

65. Clinton. "George Washington Clinton, son of (the first Governor of New York and) Vice President, George Clinton; died March 27, 1813, aged 34 years and 6 months."
    Note: This inscription is at the grave of a son of Governor George Clinton. The grave is marked by a table tomb,—the most ambitious memorial found in Dutchess County for the period to which it belongs. Four marble pillars support the four corners of a marble slab which bears the long inscription. A large part of the inscription is illegible, due partly to the scaling of the stone and partly to the fact that at some time the slab broke in a line stretching diaonally across the center. The slab was later propped up by a fifth pillar placed for its support under its center.
    There is some reason for thinking that Governor Clinton's wife was buried in this yard as well as his son. If she were, her grave is now unmarked.

DU BOIS GROUND

CLASSIFICATION: Community Ground.
LOCATION: Not identified.
REMARKS: In 1730 Matthew Du Bois of Ulster County bought more than a thousand acres, lying along the west bank of the Wappingers Creek, between Red Oaks Mill and the Titusville dam, and extending westward about to the cross road called Cedar avenue. He built a brick dwelling (which is still standing, though with altered roof, and is now owned by Mr. Augustus B. Gray) and died between 1744 and 1749. There is a well defined tradition that Matthew Du Bois set aside ground for use by his neighborhood as a burial place but the site is as yet uncertain.

MISCELLANEY

CLASSIFICATION: Stones removed from original positions.
LOCATION: In the city of Poughkeepsie, in the marble yard of Martin Collins on Main street.
CONDITION: In good repair.
INSCRIPTIONS: 2 in number. Copied in 1914 by J. W. Poucher, M. D.
REMARKS: The stone bearing the name of William Low probably stood originally on Dutch church land. It is not known how it reached the marble yard. The memorial to Polycarpus Nelson was standing in 1848 in the Nelson family bural ground on Nelson Hill, Mamaroneck (see Bolton's Hist. Westchester Co., N. Y., vol. 1, p. 306). At an unrecorded date it was removed thence to Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Tarrytown. About 1895 Van Wyck & Collins of Poughkeepsie erected a Nelson monument at Sleepy Hollow and the old stone, being in the way, was brought to their marble yard at Poughkeepsie. Since 1914 it has been moved from the marble yard to the Rhinebeck cemetery where it is well cared for.

POUGHKEEPSIE RURAL CEMETERY

CLASSIFICATION: Community Ground.

LOCATION: On the West side of the New York and Albany Post Road, just south of the corporation line of the city of Poughkeepsie.

CONDITION: Well cared for.

INSCRIPTIONS: See "Remarks".

REMARKS: The Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery is the largest burial ground in Dutchess County and is as beautiful as art and nature combined can make it. It was opened in 1853 and about 20,000 interments have been made in it, of which the cemetery corporation possesses almost complete records. A great many removals from older and more or less abandoned burying grounds have been made to the Poughkeepsie Rural but it has been impossible to obtain a separate list of them. If entered on the books of the corporation, they are not entered in such a way as to make it practicable to pick them out without endless time and labour.

The site of the Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery was formerly the estate of the Hon. Smith Thompson, sometime Secretary of the Navy and Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, who died in 1843. The Thompson estate was known as "Rust Plaets" (Resting Place) from the name of a stream which crosses it and it is a pity that this fitting title was not perpetuated by the modern cemetery corporaion.

The Hon. Smith Thompson married Sarah Livingston and he and his wife were buried in the Livingston family ground adjoining the Thompson estate to the north. Recently the Livingston ground has been incorporated into the Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery.

WAPPINGERS FALLS CEMETERY

CLASSIFICATION: Community Ground.

LOCATION: On the New York and Albany Post Road, a short distance north of the village of Wappingers Falls.

CONDITION: Well cared for.
INSCRIPTIONS: Too modern for it to be necessary to include them in this collection.
REMARKS: A large ground known as the Wappingers Falls Cemetery.

LUTHERAN CHURCH, RED HOOK

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: St. Paul's Church (Evangelical Lutheran), village of Red Hook.
CONDITION: Entirely neglected.
INSCRIPTIONS: 340 in number. Copied August 4, 1914, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., Mrs. Poucher and Miss M. O. Johnston.
REMARKS: About the year 1800 members of the German Reformed Church of Pink's Corners (town of Rhinebeck), four miles south of the village of Red Hook, built a new church at Red Hook. Before long the new congregation at Red Hook absorbed the remnants of the older one at Pink's Corners and the latter passed out of existence as a separate unit. Some years later the German Reformed Church at Red Hook became affiliated with this Lutheran congregation and as a Lutheran Church the two have continued in one corporate existence.

ST. PAUL'S, TIVOLI

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.

LOCATION: St. Paul's church (Protestant Episcopal), Tivoli.

CONDITION: Well cared for.

INSCRIPTIONS: 17 in number. Copied August 3, 1914, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., Mrs. Poucher and Miss M. O. Johnston.

REMARKS: St. Paul's parish, Tivoli, was incorporated in 1817 and has occupied two church buildings on two sites. The first church (1818-1868) stood on the main road east from Tivoli at the intersection with the road to Germantown, on the northwest corner of the intersection. It was known as the "White Church" in contra-distinction to the "Old Red Church" (Reformed Dutch) a mile to the north. The second church (1868) stands on the river road about a quarter of a mile north from the main road between Tivoli station and Madalin village, the property as a whole being one of exceptional beauty and dignified taste. In the enclosure about the church are the stones from which the following inscriptions were copied. The slope of the ground westward from the chancel afforded a suitable location for a series of family vaults, erected there by the Livingston, Watts and de Peyster families and which are shown in an accompanying illustration.

John Watts, Sr., Member of King's Council & destined Governor of the Province of New York, and of Anne, eldest dauhter of Etienne (Stephen) de Lancey; last Royal Recorder of the City of New York, 1774-1777, Speaker of the Assembly of New York 1791-1794, Member of Congress of the U. S. 1793-1795, first Judge of Westchester Co., N. Y., 1796, etc.; founder and endower of the Leake and Watts Orphan House, New York City.

*Note:—James H. Smith's History of Dutchess County, published 1882, states (p. 178) that there was then an abandoned family burial ground on a sand bluff back of the hotel at Tivoli Landing. From five stones the inscriptions were copied and printed on pp. 178-179 of the above named volume. These stones were evidently removed after 1882 to St. Paul's churchyard, being those in the above list marked by an asterisk. The family burial ground near the landing is supposed to have belonged to the Hoffmans, who were early and prominent residents in the immediate vicinity.

VAN WAGENEN GROUND

CLASSIFICATION: Family ground.

LOCATION: Not far from Rhinecliff station on the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad; on the west side of the old road from Rhinecliff to the village of Rhinebeck, on the former Hutton estate.

CONDITION: Overgrown and deserted.

INSCRIPTIONS: 22 in number. Copied October 17, 1915, by J. W. Poucher, M. D.

REMARKS: Van Wagenen ground; one of the oldest now remaining in the county.

In 1686 Gerrit Artsen, Arie Roosa and Jan Elton of Ulster county bought from the Indians land at this point in Dutchess County. Adjoining land was bought by Hendrick Kip immediately after. The purchasers all settled their families on their holdings and the locality was known for many years as Kipsbergen. In 1702 Artsen, Roosa and Elton divided their land into six lots, each taking title to two. Gerrit Artsen (from Wagenen in Holland) received lots No. 3 and No. 6. His descendants bear the name of Van Wagenen. This burial ground is on lot No. 6. In later years it was included in the portion of the lot which passed to the Hutton family.

Very recently a large tract in this neighborhood, including the Hutton estate, was purchased by Mr. Vincent Astor in order to facilitate the opening of a new road from the railroad station at Rhinecliff to the village of Rhinebeck. The line of the new road runs near the burial ground.

The inscriptions in the Van Wagenen ground were copied April 12, 1885, by Henry R. Van Vliet of Pleasant Plains, N. Y., and the list made by him includes six stones not found in 1915 by Dr. Poucher. The six are appended, below, to Dr. Poucher's list.

GERMAN CHURCH, PINK'S CORNERS

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.

LOCATION: Three miles north of the village of Rhinebeck, at Pink's Corners (or Wey's Crossing) on the New York and Albany Post Road, at the site of a former German Reformed Church.

CONDITION: Overgrown and deserted.

INSCRIPTIONS: 24 in number. Copied June 30, 1913, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Mr. George S. Van Vliet.

REMARKS: A church was erected on this site in 1716 which stood for nearly a century. It was the first church building in Dutchess County, ante-dating the Dutch church at Poughkeepsie by about seven years. The congregation that built the church was composed of German Lutherans and German Calvinists. In 1729 the Lutherans withdrew and organized St. Peter's Lutheran Church of Rhinebeck (see the list of inscriptions following this one). The Calvinists continued to use the original church building from 1729 to 1802. The congregation as a unit passed out of existence about 1802, individual members of it being absorbed in a new German church in the village of Red Hook. The ground around the church at Pink's Corners was used for burials from early in the eighteenth century. It is now abandoned.

REFORMED CHURCH, RHINEBECK

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.
LOCATION: Reformed (Dutch) Church, village of Rhinebeck.
CONDITION: Well cared for.
INSCRIPTIONS: 298 in number. Copied August 11, 1909, and August 4, 1914, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., Mrs. Poucher, Miss Helen Van Kleeck, Miss M. O. Johnston and Miss Helen W. Reynolds.
REMARKS: The first grant of land for burial purposes on "the flatts" was made by Colonel Henry Beekman in 1730. This land adjoins the present Reformed Dutch church. In 1845 further interments in it were prohibited by the village authorities. From 1845 to 1893 it was in a disorderly, abandoned condition. In 1893 the Rev. J. Howard Suydam, D. D., raised a fund for the improvement and endowment of this burial ground and it is now an ornament to the village.

RHINEBECK ASSOCIATION CEMETERY

CLASSIFICATION: Community ground.
LOCATION: In the village of Rhinebeck.
CONDITION: Well cared for.
INSCRIPTIONS: 632 in number. Copied August 1 and 5, 1914, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., Mrs. Poucher and Miss M. O. Johnston.
REMARKS: This cemetery was opened about 1845 in which year the authorities of the village of Rhinebeck prohibited further interments in the churchyards of the village. It is governed by trustees incorporated as "The Rhinebeck Association Cemetery." This list does not include the stones in the more modern section of the cemetery. It does, however, contain inscriptions of dates prior to 1845, indicating removal from earlier locations.

Editor's Note: It was the custom of the early members of the Society of Friends not to mark graves. In this and other burial grounds of the Society are, undoubtedly, many resting places now unidentifiable. In the light of this fact a copy is here presented of a memorandum in the possession of Mrs. Owen Ward of Poughkeepsie, a granddaughter of John Wilkinson (born 1780, died 1842) who lived near the Friends' Meeting House at Oswego, Dutchess County, N. Y. On the outside the document is endorsed: "For J. Wilkinson, Decm. 31, 1820. Description of Graves in Oswego burying ground." On the inside the text reads:

"Memorandum for J. Wilkinson, Describing the situation of the Graves of His Decd relatives who lie in the North Burying Ground at the Oswego meeting house near the Road south of the school house.

Grandmother Martha Gifford lyes near the fence about east of the large black oak tree that stands in the (Rode?) about half way between said school house and meeting house. William Gifford, husband to said Martha, lyes 1st North. The first East of Grandmother is my Father, John Wilkinson. Next north is his brother, William. Next North is Jabez Gifford, his half Brother. Next north in line is Hannah Gifford, wife of Benjamin the elder. Next North is William, son of Wilkinson Gifford. First south of John Wilkinson is Polly Flagler, Wife to Zachariah Flagler and eldest Daughter of the above named John Wilkinson. Next east is William Wilkinson, my eldest Brother."

The memorandum is unsigned, but it discloses that it was prepared by a son or daughter of John Wilkinson. The latter (born 1742, died 1802) came to Dutchess County from Rhode Island about 1755 with his mother, Martha, and her second husband, William Gifford. The Wilkinsons and Giffords were among the early Friends in Rhode Island.

268. Vincent,—Large stone.
Front—"Michael Vincent and others of the Vincent family. He being the first in this County, to which he came from Westchester County, this State, about 1750. He died near Verbank in the 103d year of his age."
Back—"In 1907 the bodies which had been buried in the ancient burial plot on the Vincent farm near Verbank were disinterred &, for greater care, were removed to this ground. Those from the unmarked graves were placed beneath this stone."
[NOTE—The inscription on the large stone is misleading in so far as it refers to Michael Vincent. The latter died in 1808 aged 88 and he and his wife were buried at Potter's Corners, Town of La Grange, where the stones at their graves are still standing (see inscriptions Nos. 135-136, Potter's Corners List in this collection). Michael Vincent's will (recorded in Dutchess County Surrogate's office) shows that he died childless. From documentary evidence in the possession of the editor it is demonstrable that he was a son of Leonard & Hannah (Van Kortryk) Vincent of Westchester County, and that he and four brothers (Leonard, Richard, Charles, & John) settled in Dutchess County early in the 18th century.—The Editor.]

SWARTWOUT GROUND

CLASSIFICATION: Family ground.
LOCATION: At Swartwoutville, on the road between Brinckerhoff and Fishkill Plains.
CONDITION: Overgrown and deserted.
INSCRIPTIONS: 1 in number. Copied by J. W. Poucher, M. D.
REMARKS: Swartwout ground. A stone wall surrounds a large enclosure and also divides the space through the center. In one half are several unmarked field stones. In the other is a single large slab of slate, removed from its original position and leaned against a tree. The slab bears the one word: "Swartwout". It is probable that removals have been made from this enclosure. In the colonial period the Swartwouts were prosperous, early residents here. "Swartwoutville" was a name given to a locality rather than to a particular settlement.

1. Swartwout.

INSCRIPTIONS: Four in number. Copied September 24, 1916, by J. W. Poucher, M. D.

MIDDLEBUSH CHURCHYARD

CLASSIFICATION: Churchyard.

LOCATION: Between Wappingers Falls and Fishkill Village, on the east side of the main highway.

CONDITION: Rough and unkempt.

INSCRIPTIONS: 97 in number. Copied November 21, 1912, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., and Miss Helen W. Reynolds.

REMARKS: Known as Middlebush cemetery. Before the War of the Revolution there was a Baptist church at Gayhead in the town of East Fishkill. In 1782 this was abandoned and a new congregation was organized which erected a church at Middlebush. One pastor served for a time both at Middlebush and at the Union meeting house at Green Haven in the town of Beekman (q. v.). In 1826 the "meeting house lot" at Middlebush was sold and, in 1830, the church building was purchased by the Methodists. The building was used by the Methodists 1830-1869 and was finally torn down.

REMARKS: The late Clinton W. Clapp, born at Wappingers Falls in 1831, a life-long resident of the place and a student of local history, is authority for the statement that land for a community burial ground east of the falls of Wappingers Creek was given in 1742 by Nicholas Brewer and that many interments were made there in early years unmarked by stones. In 1834-35 Zion church was built east of the burial ground and after that the use of the burial ground decreased.

LOCATION: North of the village of Lithgow, just west of the main highway.

CONDITION: Well cared for.

INSCRIPTIONS: 221 in number. Copied August 27, 1914, by J. W. Poucher, M. D., Mrs. H. N. Bain and Mr. Richard F. Maher.

REMARKS: St. Peter's Cemetery, controlled by the vestry of St. Peter's Church, Lithgow. St. Peter's parish was founded in 1801 by Philander Chase, then rector of Christ Church, Poughkeepsie, and later the famous missionary Bishop of Ohio. In 1806 David Johnston of Lithgow gave the land for a church building, his gift comprising the present cemetery lot. Not until 1834, however, was the building erected and it burned down in 1880. In rebuilding in the same year the parish selected the present site in the village of Lithgow. Although a church stood for so short a time on the land given by David Johnston the lot has been continuously used for burial purposes. It is now more than a parochial burying ground, the whole community making use of it.

(Editor's Note: A family burial ground was once in use in the northwest angle of the junction of the State Road and of the road to Bangall. All traces of it are obliterated. The property was once owned by Matthew Comstock and was inherited by his granddaughter, Mrs. A. M. Sutton [recently deceased] and is now held by Miss Mary Flaherty. Mr. Stephen Merritt, owner of the place across the road, states [1924] that he can recall seeing the old stones standing in this ground, that one bore the name of Northrop and another that of Nicholson).
